"The President's Corner"

*Mole Doris R. Asbury
National President*

Dear Mole Sisters,

For our pre-conclave issue of the Mole-O-Gram, I want to first say thank you to the chapters that have shared news on their events and milestones this year. We've thoroughly enjoyed reading about your sensational activities!

The Mole-O-Gram is our way of keeping in touch and sharing our Mole happenings with our Mole Sisters. Many of our chapters are having several events that they want us to know about before we receive the Molerama.

I, truly, feel that the Mole-O-Gram has fulfilled its purpose: to allow us to keep in touch during the year. Please know that it doesn't replace the Molerama, but complements it by allowing you to tell your exciting stories more often.

If your chapter didn't submit an article this year, we want you to make sure to get prepared for next year. We enjoy reading about what you are doing to keep the spirit of Moledom alive!

I am looking forward to seeing each of you in Raleigh and will greet you with a "Happy" attitude as we enhance our relationships. We will take care of the business and then we will enjoy ourselves and one another.

The Rocky Mount Chapter has worked non-stop to ensure that you will enjoy your visit to the Capitol City of North Carolina-Raleigh. The Convention Center and Marriott staff members are excited about us coming and will do whatever is necessary to make you want to return. Come to Raleigh ready to experience a "Touch of Elegance Down East" and to adhere to our motto: "Enjoy Yourself; It's Later Than You Think".

My sincere thanks to Mole "Bunny" and the committee for telling our stories this year! A job well done!

Sisterly,
Mole Doris

A PRE-CONCLAVE MESSAGE FROM ATLANTA MOLE GLORIA PATTERSON

Mole Gloria and mole Andy Patterson

EXHIBIT AT NC MUSEUM OF HISTORY IN RALEIGH, NC

Mole Sisters,

I am so excited to share with you that my wedding gown (48 years old) is part of a special exhibit at the NC Museum of History in Raleigh, NC during the time of the Mole's Conclave. The exhibit is entitled “Made Especially for You”. My gown was designed and made by Mrs. Willie Kaye, a renowned seamstress and designer in Raleigh who designed and made beautiful gowns for people all over the country. Many of you know Cynthia Roberson. Her gown is also a part of the exhibit. Neither Cynthia nor I knew that Mrs. Kaye had made our gowns until she mentioned going to Raleigh for an exhibit. Mrs. Kaye is the deceased grandmother of former Atlanta Mayor Bill Campbell. You're invited to make this exhibit (especially Gloria's gown) a part of your weekend activities during the Mole's Conclave. Thanks to my mom for preserving the gown and I can take credit for moving it carefully each time that we moved. The museum sent a representative to Atlanta to transport the dress to Raleigh and to restore it for the exhibit. I'm excited and I hope that you will be able to see the exhibit. The museum is located at 5 East Edenton St. Telephone 919-807-7891

"MY SISTER'S KEEPER"

BY: MOLE JODI GALLMAN

NATIONAL AND COLUMBIA CHAPTER PARLIAMENTARIAN

When life changes (i.e. you bring your elderly parents into your home to give them the care they need) and you are faced with challenges that alter your established order of reality (i.e. your beloved husband and teammate experiences a health emergency); how do you cope when there is no family nearby to assist on the regular? You begin to question all you believe to be good and solid. You wonder, "How can I make it and maintain my sanity?" Well, you don't have to have all of the answers; you just need My Sister's Keeper...a special program of the Columbia Moles. That is exactly what my Columbia Mole Sisters were for me and my family:

- My sisters started a prayer line
- My sisters scheduled/delivered meals.
- My sisters sent cards, emails, made phone calls of encouragement.
- My sisters surrounded me with love and support.
- My sisters lifted me up and would not let me fall.

Take it from me..."It's good to be a Mole!" From one Sister to another...everyone needs a Sister's Keeper...a Sister circle to help you over the rough patches and lift you up when you need it most!!

Mole Jodi Gallman

APRIL CHAPTER MEETING CELEBRATES "SPRING, SISTERHOOD, AND SPARKLE"

The Columbia Moles' April chapter meeting celebrated "Spring Sisterhood and Sparkle". Chapter members (pictured left at meeting) and guests were hosted by Mole Kim and Mule Fred Jones, Jr. Mole Kim welcomed us by stating that her theme "represented the love and joy (Spring), the special bond (Sisterhood) and the individual uniqueness (Sparkle) that the Columbia Moles share". A floral arrangement featuring our signature white carnations adorned guest tables and each Mole was given a fashionable sun hat as their special gift. Our April meeting was a spring-fest that was filled with good food, great fun and priceless fellowship.

Not only did Rumbao perform three, crowd pleasing routines; they also taught sexy, Salsa and Bachata moves to the attendees! Mules, Moles and guests enjoyed delectable cuisine prepared in Mexican tradition. Mole Edna gifted each male and female guest with maracas and beautiful, folding hand fans, respectively. Muchas gracias to Mole and Mule Langley for a fabulous evening!
